WRIT PETITION No. 1418 of 2006

ORDER:

The petitioner states that he has successfully completed

B. Sc(CCS Course) from the Andhra Kesari Degree Collecge, Rajahmundry, third respondent herein. His grievance is that though he has successfully completed all the papers, the respondents are detaining him alleging that he has not appeared for the Mathematics Paper-IV examination. The petitioner states that on that pretext respondents 1 and 2 are refusing to issue provisional certificate and thereby creating hurdles in the career of the petitioner to pursue further courses.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Standing Counsel for the respondents.

The petitioner suspects that the respondents have detained him, and this suspicion is on the ground that the other candidates, who have studied along with the petitioner, have been issued the provisional certificates.

Learned Standing Counsel had obtained instructions at the admission stage itself, and submitted that after due verification, the University has decided to issue the provisional certificate, and in fact, the same has been despatched to the petitioner today itself.

In that view of the matter, the grievance of the petitioner stands redressed and therefore, further no further orders are necessary.

The writ petition is closed duly recording the submission made on behalf of respondents 1 and 2.
